Registration, Subscription, Cancellation by You and Additional Usage (Pay-As-You-Go)

Where applicable, you may become a registrant of the Service at no cost. As a registrant, you will have the ability to participate in some, but not all, of the features and tools available within the Service.

In order to access certain additional features, including the ability to use many of our tools, you must become a subscriber to the Service.

We offer paid monthly subscription plans and annual subscription plans.

These subscriptions are paid upfront monthly or annually depending on your subscription plan and according to your billing period, with automatic renewals every month or year respectively. You therefore acknowledge and agree that there will be recurring payments by you for the same and that we are authorised to charge the same credit card that you have used for the initial subscription and/or any other payment method used. This will continue until you cancel your subscription plan with us. Such cancellation must be made by you before your subscription renews in order to avoid being charged for the following month's or year's subscription fee. When you cancel, you will still have access to our Service based on your subscription plan until the end of your subscription period. You may also opt to downgrade your subscription plan at any time. Any downgrade will only take effect after the end of your current subscription period and the provisions in this section will continue to apply to such downgraded subscription plans.

Depending on the subscription plan you select, you will be entitled to varying number of features and/or different limits. Any additional usage on top of those provided under the respective subscription plans is subject to additional charges as set forth in our pricing page. We will periodically charge you for such usage on a pay-as-you-go basis. This will continue for any accrued pay-as-you-go usage even after the cessation of your subscription plan for any reason and any unused portion will expire by the stipulated timeframe without being transferred to any subsequent usage period. In the event that such charges are not paid by you, we shall have the right to remove your access to our Service at any time and apply the value of your remaining subscription plan towards the fulfilment of such charges.

Tax and Fees

We show all prices and charges for our Service exclusive of taxes and fees. Where applicable, and in accordance with the applicable laws, taxes and fees will be charged on the invoices issued by us. Where a currency other than US dollars is used for payment, we apply a fixed conversion rate that is updated from time to time. Rankfast, in its sole discretion, will calculate the amount of taxes and fees due. We may make changes to the amounts due, without providing prior notice.

If you are exempt from any taxes and fees, you must provide us with all appropriate tax exemption certificates, or other documentation satisfactory to the applicable taxing authorities, to substantiate such exemption status.

Rankfast reserves the right to review and validate tax exemption documentation. If tax exemption documentation is not provided or held to be invalid, we reserve the right to charge the applicable taxes and fees.

You are solely responsible for any applicable taxes and fees. As such, when you pay us for our Service, all payments will be made free and clear of any deduction or withholding taxes and fees, as may be required by applicable Law. If any such deduction or withholding taxes and fees (including domestic or cross-border withholding taxes) are required on any payment, you will pay such additional amounts as necessary, such that the net amount received by us is equal to the amount then due and payable for use of our Service, including your subscription plan and any additional charges incurred. We will provide you with such tax forms as reasonably requested in order to reduce or eliminate the amount of any withholding or deduction for taxes in respect of payments made for using our Service.

Where taxes and fees are due towards the taxing authorities by you instead of Rankfast, through the reverse charge or other similar mechanism, you will provide us with all appropriate evidence so that we may demonstrate your business nature. Such evidence might include a valid VAT registration number or other similar information. We reserve the right to review and validate your VAT registration number or other similar information provided to us by you. If the VAT registration number or other similar information is held to be invalid, we reserve the right to charge you the applicable VAT. For the avoidance of doubt, if VAT is due by you to a taxing authority, through the reverse charge or other similar mechanisms, you are solely responsible for paying those amounts to the relevant taxing authority, such that we receive the full amount of payment due to us for your use of our Service.

Refund policy

Unless required by law, Rankfast is not obligated to provide you a refund at any time or for any reason. For annual and monthly subscriptions, you may request a refund after payment has been made for non-use. Where there has been material activity in your account, we will not provide a refund.
